

ANZANAC

HIV Nurses Special Interest Group of the ANMF (Vic Branch)

(Formerly 'Australian AIDS Nurses Resource Group')

ANZANAC was formed in 1995 to provide and support education for HIV nurses in Victoria. Membership is open to nurses who have an interest in the HIV.

AIMS & OBJECTIVES

- To foster exchange of ideas and better communication between nurses in Victoria, who work in the area of HIV/AIDS
- To provide speakers to participate in public health education programmes

- To provide a resource and support group for nurses involved (or interested) in nursing people with HIV/AIDS and BBVs
- To maintain and further develop high quality care for people with HIV/AIDS and BBVs
- To encourage opportunities for research
- To encourage publication of articles by nurses on issues related to HIV/AIDS and BBVs
- To establish a liaison with international HIV/AIDS nursing groups

ANZANAC ACTIVITIES

Activities of the group involve

- Organisation of educational seminars to provide members with up to date information
- Regular meetings of members to discuss issues related to HIV/AIDS and BBV's nursing
- Annual General Meeting
