

OHS CONFERENCE

FRIDAY 24 MARCH

AGENDA

TIME	PRESENTATION TITLE	SPEAKER
9am	Official welcome	Lisa Fitzpatrick Branch Secretary Australian Nursing & Midwifery Federation (Vic Branch)
9.10am	The STAR approach: using systems thinking to uncover the factors driving manual handling and mental injury in Victoria's public hospitals	Dr Tony Carden Principle Ergonomist WorkSafe Victoria
10.10am	Manual handling solutions for deceased bariatric/obese patients	Stephen Morley Safe Manual Handling Coordinator Bendigo Health
10.50am	Morning tea
11.15am	OHS fundamentals and why they are important	Dominic Melling OHS Lead Organiser Victorian Trades Hall Council
11.55am	Consultation and OHS issue resolution; where do we go from here?	Sara Jorgensen HSR & AMM Bendigo Health Sally Collier-Clarke HSR & RM Bendigo Health Clayton Larkin Group Lead, Representation Support WorkSafe Victoria Mark Carter Health Safety & Wellbeing Manager, People & Culture Thomas Embling Hospital
12.35am	OHS clauses in industrial agreements	Paul Gilbert Assistant Secretary Australian Nursing & Midwifery Federation (Vic Branch)
13.15pm	Lunch
14.05pm	Thrown in the deep end with a full patient load; learnings for grads and experts	Kirrily Bucket Workplace Behaviours & Discrimination Officer Australian Nursing & Midwifery Federation (Vic Branch) Alice Pemberton Graduate & Final Year Student Support Officer Australian Nursing & Midwifery Federation (Vic Branch)
14.45pm	A 'best practice' approach to the application of restrictive interventions promotes safety for all	Brian Jackson Director of Nursing Royal Melbourne Hospital/North West Mental Health
15.40pm	Conference conclusion	